STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

The stewardship message in the parable of the Prodigal Son is that it is never too late to become a good steward. Blessed is the elder brother who had been a good steward all along, but blessed, too, is the prodigal who had to lose all he had in order to understand the value of what he'd been given.

St. Anne's gets credits through script for Ace Hardware and Safeway. Sign up.

LAST SUNDAY'S OFFERING/OFRENDAS DE LA SEMANA PASADA

"Weekly church collection results will no longer be posted in the bulletin. Instead, summary results for the previous month will be reported to the parish the first Sunday of each month."

St. Anne is a "Fair Share Parish." As a Fair Share Parish we ask those who are able to give a weekly fair share offering of $48.00. We also ask those who are able to prayerfully consider giving extra share for those who are unable to give. For your convenience, Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) forms are available. This is an easy way to give your fair share each week. Forms are available in the foyer and office.

Your generosity is your return to the Lord for his goodness to you. Make an investment in the reign of God today!

FAITH FORMATION

How is my family's "St. Anne's Makes Change" jar filling up?

Does my family have a jar with the "St. Anne Makes Change" label on our table so we can drop our coins in each day? Please help take care of those who need food, clothing, etc. Our donations will help the St. Vincent de Paul Society open their new building in our area. We are supporting a great cause! Please bring you jar of money back to church on Palm Sunday, March 28th.

Catholic Action Principles Get Tough

Tough means that you are willing to stand tall and persevere. Even when your mind and body signal perfectly good reasons for giving up, you go on. This tough is obvious. But tough can be seen every day if we choose to look. Tough may be a patient undergoing cancer treatments or a single mother struggling to raise children. Tough can be an alcoholic ready to face rehab or an athlete living in a wheelchair. Tough can be rejecting false praise and honestly accepting you and your children for who and what you are. Tough can be standing up to cynics, skeptics and comics who mock your faith. Tough is an ability to make the best from what you are given. Tough is making the decision to replace self-pity, complaints and dependence with self-reliance, independence and action.

You've got to be tough to do the big things in life like taking risks, admitting mistakes, and changing bad habits. You've got to be tough to do the little things like biting your tongue, waiting your turn and putting up with fools. Self-reliance and self-confidence will demand your toughness. Then, you must temper toughness with kindness, realizing that many times it will be tough to be kind. Be kind anyway.

-Bill FitzPatrick.

Lent Days of Fast and Abstinence

Fridays are days of abstinence. Good Friday is a day of both fast and abstinence.

Abstinence is no meat (chicken, veal, beef or pork) or meat products for everyone over the age of 14 years.

A Fast is defined as one meal and two lesser meals and is binding on those between the ages of 18-59.

"No one should be scrupulous in this regard; failure to observe some penitential day is not considered serious; rather is it failure to observe any penitential days at all or a substantial number of such, which is considered serious."

- U.S. Bishops Conference

Nurses Notes

Fruits that help Constipation – Part 2

It would be impossible to get exact transit times because food doesn't move through the digestive process all together. Foods don't always get processed in the same order as they came in—some of the food from the same meal will be in the colon, while another portion remains in the stomach.

A meal is a mixture of several types of chemicals and materials. It's a miracle the body knows what to do with everything, but it does. Sometimes the choices we make will effect the transit time unpleasantly, and that can mean problems with constipation. One of the best foods to get the journey back on track is fruit. Enjoying at least two fruits a day can keep the transit police happy. (Is that the sound of happy people's toilet's flushing?)

Top Ten Fruits

Fruits are made by nature- a perfect food. They are easy to digest and absorb. Fruits are your colon's friends. If you ever suffer from constipation, you'll want to reach for fresh fruit. Here's a look at the top ten fruits that help improve constipation.
