Hungering for Celebration!

We prayed, fasted and gave alms – and now we celebrate! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl ends in our own hearts, where Jesus reigns forever. Let us rejoice in our risen Lord – and in the lives we've changed this Lent in Tanzania, Nicaragua, Niger, Lebanon, the Democratic Republic of Congo and all over the world! Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl.

Hambrientos por celebración!

Oramos, ayunamos y dimos limosna – y ahora celebramos! Nuestro camino cuaresmal con plato de arroz de CRS termina en nuestros propios corazones, donde Jesús Reina para siempre. Regocijémonos en nuestro Señor resucitado – y en la vida que hemos cambiado esta Cuaresma en Tanzania, Nicaragua, Níger, Líbano, la República Democrática del Congo y en todo el mundo! No olvides entregar tu plato de arroz de CRS.

Pope Francis proclaimed 2015 the Year of Consecrated Life. Sisters and Brothers in Christ, living consecrated lives, make great contributions to our society. They minister with people poor and rich, near and far, educated and illiterate, sick and healthy, helpless and powerful, believers and non-believers. During this year, we at St. Anne will highlight the ministry of many sisters and brothers. We welcome you to write a short story of a sister or brother who has influenced you. Email srbarbara@stannechurchbyron.com.

El Papa Francisco proclamó el 2015 como el año de la vida consagrada. Los hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que viven vidas consagradas hacen grandes aportaciones a nuestra sociedad. Ministran con gente pobre y rica, cerca y lejos, educados y analfabetos, enfermos y sanos, indefensos y potentes, creyentes y no creyentes. Durante este año, en Santa Ana sacaremos a relucir el Ministerio de muchos hermanos y hermanas. Le invitamos a escribir una breve historia de una hermana o hermano que los ha influenciado. STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

Alleluia! Christ is risen and is victorious over sin and death! We are good stewards of faith if, like St. Paul, we share this good news whenever and wherever we can.

PENSAMIENTO ADMINISTRATIVO

¡ Aleluya! Cristo ha resucitado y es victorioso sobre el pecado y la muerte. Somos buenos mayordomos de la fe si, como San Pablo, compartimos esta buena noticia cuando y donde podemos.

OFRENDAS DE LA SEMANA

En el pasado la parroquia iba a publicar las ofertas semanales y compararlas con un monto presupuestado, basado en "Ofrendas parte justa."

La publicación de esta información fue suspendido por recomendación de la diócesis debido a una serie de robos que se han producido en algunos las parroquias de la Diócesis.

Sus ofrendas semanales son muy importantes a la parroquia con el fin de cumplir con nuestras responsabilidades operativas. Pedimos que cada feligrés continuar en oración consideren una oferta consistente que ayude en el cumplimiento de esas responsabilidades. Su generosidad es su retorno al Señor todo el bien para ti.

WEEKLY OFFERING

In the past the parish would publish the weekly offerings and compare them to a budgeted amount, based on "Fair Share Offerings."

The publishing of this information was discontinued at the recommendation of the Diocese due to a number of burglaries that have occurred at some parishes in the Diocese.

Your weekly offerings are very important to the parish in order to meet our operational responsibilities. We ask that each parishioner continue to prayerfully consider a consistent offering that will assist in meeting those responsibilities

Your generosity is your return to the Lord for his goodness to you. Make an investment in the reign of God today!

Nurses Notes:

How to say goodbye to our loved ones, Part II

It's OK, even comforting, to let on that you know the end is nearing.

Realize that the dying person usually knows what's happening. When those in the room don't talk about it the person who's dying starts to wonder if nobody else gets it. That only adds stress -- they have to think about others' needs instead of dealing with their own."

It helps to reassure the dying person that you understand and are ready; in a way, you're granting the person permission to set aside the troubles of this world.

Truth is good -- but so is the little white lie

Being reassured that their loved ones will fare well in their absence helps people feel they can go peacefully, hospice workers say. It's common to seek reconciliation with or between other people, with God or the universe, or within themselves. They often ask directly about particular relationships or express a desire to see someone they've been in conflict with themselves.

Help your loved one see that he or she made a difference in the world or within a particular family, which satisfies the human need to feel our lives had meaning and purpose.

Kaleidoscope Krockpot Brigade

Perhaps you saw the beautiful article in the February 6 Discovery Bay Press about our Krockpot Brigade. Thanks to Linea Jessup for her attention to this wonderful service that has been going for 11 years. Sharon Bonney, the Hospitality Director, gives us more details about how you can lend a much needed hand.

Cooks Needed

The Krockpot Brigade is in desperate need of additional cooks to serve our families going through chemo and radiation treatments. The Brigade is one of the oldest programs of Kaleidoscope and it has served over 5000 meals in the last 11 years. Over the years it has had an average of 30 to 40 cooks on the cooks list with 20 cooks active at any time. Currently we have 20 cooks with less than half of them actively cooking. We have four families receiving meals each week and we are having a hard time filling all the available dates.

If you have been a cook previously, if you thought you might like to cook but just never acted on that thought, if you know of friends or acquaintances who might want to cook, now is the time to step up and volunteer. You will be welcomed to our team with joyous hearts and your heart will swell with the love and appreciation you will receive from the families.

Every month, Margory Soltani, the Krockpot Brigade Coordinator, sends an email listing the families we serve and the dates we need cooks. You request your preferred family and the dates you want to cook. Margory will assign you those dates if you are the first to ask for that date. If not, she will contact you with other available dates still unfilled and you can select from that list. Cooking at least once a month would be very helpful right now, but you decide how often you want to cook and for which family or families.

You may contact Sharon Bonney (sdbonney3@yahoo.com) or Margory Soltani (margorykarla@hotmail.com) to answer any questions or to sign up to cook.
Bon Appetit!
