STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

Like Nathan in today's first reading, we sin when we begin to feel entitled and act as if what we have is ours by right, when we forget that everything we have is an unmerited gift from God. But God is gracious and forgiving—even when we use His gifts wrongly or squander them thoughtlessly—if, like Nathan, we confess our guilt and ask

LAST SUNDAY'S OFFERING/OFRENDAS DE LA SEMANA PASADA

"Weekly church collection results will no longer be posted in the bulletin. Instead, summary results for the previous month will be reported to the parish the first Sunday of each month."

St. Anne is a "Fair Share Parish." As a Fair Share Parish we ask those who are able to give a weekly fair share offering of $48.00. We also ask those who are able to prayerfully consider giving extra share for those who are unable to give. For your convenience, Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) forms are available. This is an easy way to give your fair share each week. Forms are available in the foyer and office.

*Your generosity is your return to the Lord for his goodness to you.
Make an investment in the reign of God today!*

Catholic Action Principles Remain Adaptable

In daily life, through a love of many things, it is possible to remain adaptable. If it starts raining on the way to the beach, you'll enjoy going to the movies. If you are kept waiting for an appointment, don't get angry. Say a decade of the Rosary, make a few calls or work on your schedule. If you get stuck in traffic, enjoy your favorite motivational audiotape, radio station or CD. Always have a book with you and you will never be alone. The small stuff can't get you down if you are ready to substitute one good thing for another.

-Bill FitzPatrick,

Help Us Connect the World with God's Word!

Today we will hold the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This Collection funds media projects that spread the Good News through the Internet, radio, TV and print media. These projects evangelize, nourish the faithful, foster community and grant easy, direct access to thousands of Catholic resources. Help connect the world with God's Word! Support the Catholic Communication Campaign in today's Collection.

Adopt a Priest with Prayer

This ministry, begun at St. Mary's parish in 1996, continues to pray for the priests of the Oakland Diocese. Priests have a divine Mission but they are also very human and daily face the problems and struggles common to all of us. They have a great need of our support in prayer, love and concern. If you would be willing to pray each day during the current year for an individual priest of the Oakland Diocese, please send your name and address to Alice Osterman, 10 Pueblo Ct., Alamo, CA 94507 or phone (925)935-0461. Alice will mail the name of a priest for you. No meetings, no dues, just prayer!

Nurses Notes

What is Asthma

Part 2 - Types of Asthma

What type of asthma do you think you have? Asthma is often put into categories or groups based on the triggers or situations that cause asthma symptoms. But no matter what type of asthma you may have, the right treatment plan may help prevent symptoms. Talk to your doctor about the right plan for you.

NOCTURNAL ASTHMA

Nocturnal asthma refers to asthma symptoms that seem worse in the middle of the night, typically between 2AM and 4AM. Interestingly, nocturnal asthma can affect someone with any type of asthma.

Factors that can cause your asthma symptoms to worsen at night may include sinus infections or postnasal drip caused by allergens such as dust mites or pet dander. Your body clock may also play some role. The body makes adrenaline and corticosteroids, which protect against asthma. Levels of these two substances are lowest between midnight and 4AM, making it more likely you will experience symptoms during these times.

ASTHMA IN PREGNANCY

Among pregnant patients who have asthma, one-third will experience improvement in their asthma, one-third will remain stable, and one-third will experience worsening of their asthma. Improved asthma control during pregnancy is associated with lower rates of pregnancy-related complications. So if you have asthma and are pregnant, talk to your doctor about what you might expect and what you can do about your asthma symptoms.

OCCUPATIONAL ASTHMA

Occupational asthma refers to asthma that is newly diagnosed and caused by exposure to a substance (chemicals or animal proteins, for example) in the workplace. If you can reduce your exposure to these triggers, you may be able to reduce your asthma symptoms. Keep in mind that occupational asthma does not refer to people already diagnosed with asthma who are more prone to flare-ups when exposed to irritant dusts or fumes in their work environment.

Next Week: Part 3 – Types of Asthma – Cont'd

PLEASE- Remember to use the phone in the office or at the AV area in the hall and not a cell phone to call 911. Your cell phone will reach Sacramento CHP and precious time will be wasted.

Covenant Corner

The Covenant Corner is an opportunity for us to recognize those who use their gifts in service for others. We want to give regular thanks to those who do so much for all of us. So we invite you when you see someone doing something worth noting to let us know, by mail or email office@stannechurchbyron.com. Please keep the note 4-5 short sentences (maximum). Then we can get it in the bulletin.

First Communion & Confirmation Pictures

We would appreciate electronic copies of pictures taken of your child(ren) at any of the masses for our archives. Please email pictures to office@stannechurchbyron.com.

Mission Coop Appeal – Hands Together

Next weekend, the second collection is for Mission Coop Appeal. Representatives of missions from all over the world are appearing in every parish of the Diocese to share their stories of evangelization in the some of the poorest counties on earth, many of which are also plagued by natural disasters, civil strife and religious persecution. The Diocese of Oakland is extremely diverse and includes both large and small parishes and both prosperous and poor parishes. As the name implies, the Mission effort is a cooperative one, and your donation will help not only the Hand Together Representative that will speak here but all of the other missions whose representatives are appearing throughout the Diocese. Their representative this year is Fr. Mark Stelzer. He will be here to celebrate mass with us and tell us more about the work of this organization. Please welcome him and be generous with your support.

Need Your Unwanted Cell Phones

Anna Piazza & the Vacation Bible School are collecting your unwanted and outdated cell phones as a fund raiser. All of the proceeds will be used to help those injured in Haiti. They will be buying wheelchairs through the Wheel Chair Foundation. A box is being left in the foyer to collect the cell phones. Help them out in their first fund raiser. They are very impassioned about helping those injured in the earthquake. They need just the cell phone (make sure you remove the sim card), no accessories or cords.
