Nurses Notes

Why Should I Be Concerned About Safe Disposal of Medicines?

Prescription medications play an important role in the health of millions of Americans. However, expired medications or unused drugs often stay in the back of cabinets for months or even years. These expired drugs can pose significant health hazards to toddlers, teens, and even family pets who may inadvertently consume medications. Some medications are so potent that even one dose could be fatal if accidentally ingested.

There are other important safety issues: misuse of prescription narcotic drugs (opioids) is a major public health concern. In fact, over 115 people die each day from opioid (narcotic) overdoses. Death from prescription opioids, drugs like oxycodone, hydrocodone, and methadone, have increased fourfold since 1999, as noted by the CDC.

A U.S. government report shows that more than half of all people who first misuse prescription drugs get them from their friends, relatives or simply take them without asking.

A 2018 report found that the number of children hospitalized for opioid poisoning increased by 3-fold between 1997 and 2012, and the largest overall increase was among toddlers and preschoolers, according to the American Academy of Pediatrics. These statistics magnify the need for proper disposal of unused or expired prescription medications from the home to help prevent misuse -- or accidental overdose -- of dangerous drugs.

Outreach Priest - Rev. Hilario Rivera

We welcome Father Hilario Rivera of Cross Catholic Outreach who is speaking this weekend at all Masses on behalf of the poor in developing countries. Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priest and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Arica, Asia, Central and South America..

Father Rivera was ordained in June 1976 in the Diocese of Caguas, Puerto Rico, which is also his place of birth. Fr. Rivera was commissioned as a missionary to the Diocese of San Cristobal de Las Casas in Chiapas, Mexico and served there 13 years. He served the indigenous population of the Choles and Tzeltal and learned to speak two Mayan dialects. He also served with El Salvador, Nicaragua, and Guatemala, including Guatemalan refugees. From there, Fr. Joined the diocese of Venice, FL, and in addition to working with Mexican migrant workers, was the Directorship of Cursillos of Christianity, until later serving as Parochial Vicar in three parishes in the Diocese of Orlando. Service there for 7 years, the Bishop petitioned him to work with the Sister diocese of San Juan de la Maguana, in the Dominican Republic with he did; serving the marginalized communities there for 2 years.

Father Rivera speaks fluent English, Spanish & Portuguese. His 41 years of service, 32 years of which were in missions, along with his Degrees in Philosophy, Theology and counseling, and his love for the poor, have led him to Cross Catholic Outreach. "I consider being an Outreach Priest for Cross Catholic Outreach, a gift from God."
