SERVE

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

In today's Gospel, Jesus had planned to slip away from the crowds for a few moments of peace and a little rest. When He saw the people gathered, however, He put His needs aside to meet the needs of others. Sometimes, as good stewards, we are called to do the same.

PENSAMIENTO ADMINISTRATIVO

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús había planeado escapar de las multitudes para unos momentos de paz y un poco de descanso. Sin embargo, cuando vio a las personas reunidas, puso a un lado sus necesidades para satisfacer las necesidades de los demás. A veces, como buenos administradores, estamos llamados a hacer lo mismo.

Thank you!

Your sharing of your gifts (time, talent & treasure) is truly appreciated. If you have questions about our St. Anne budget please give Lisa a call 925-634-6625.

Nurses Notes

Emergency kit and preparedness

Here are 5 items that belong in every home emergency kit:

- Food and water — Include enough for 3 days for each member of your family. Choose foods that won't spoil, such as peanut butter and canned tuna. Don't forget a can opener.
- Radio and flashlight — OK, these might be 2 separate items. But some manufacturers have combined these tools into one device. Whether you buy them separately or as part of a specialized emergency tool, you'll have your choice of hand-crank or battery power. If you go with batteries, be sure to keep extras on hand.
- First aid kit — Buy one ready-made or assemble your own. Make sure to include hand sanitizer and garbage bags.
- Plastic sheeting and duct tape — These items can be handy for patching a broken window, stopping a leaky roof, making a hammock...the possibilities are endless.
- Whistle — When you need to signal for help and you can't be easily seen, a whistle will make it easier for rescuers to find you.
- Learn how to shut off your utilities, and keep important telephone #s in a safe place

Volunteers must be at least 18 and have not suffered a close personal loss in the last 12 months. The commitment is usually 1-2 hours per week. Thorough training will be provided to help volunteers feel comfortable with their assignments. There are patients in our area who are awaiting volunteer assistance.
