STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

Jesus tells the crowd that only those who renounce all of their possessions can be His disciples. Is He truly asking us to give up everything? Perhaps instead He is trying to help us see that everything we think we own is really a gift from God. Good stewards know that and strive to use those gifts accountably.

PENSAMIENTO ADMINISTRATIVO

Jesús dice a la multitud que sólo aquellos que renuncien a todas sus posesiones pueden ser sus discípulos. ¿Verdaderamente nos pide que demos todo? Tal vez, el está tratando de ayudarnos a ver que todo lo que creemos que poseemos es realmente un regalo de Dios. Los buenos mayordomos saben y se esfuerzan por utilizar esos regalos responsablemente.

Thank you!*

Your gifts (time, talent & treasure) are truly appreciated.

Home health care involves part-time medical services ordered by a physician for a specific condition. These services may include nursing care to help a person recover from surgery, an accident, or illness. These services are provided by home health care agencies approved by Medicare, a government insurance program for people over age 65.

Reception Information & Referral Volunteers, Catholic Charities of the East Bay – Concord, Oakland and Richmond Offices

The Reception Information & Referral Volunteers are crucial to the success of Catholic Charities. They serve as a first point-of-contact for members of our community who call or walk in to our offices. The Volunteers make appointments for community members with Catholic Charities' staff and volunteers, provide information about Catholic Charities' services, and refer community members to other area agencies that could benefit them. As such, Volunteers must be patient, polite and helpful above all else. Bilingual (English/Spanish) volunteers are preferred for this role. This is an ideal volunteer opportunity for retired office professionals wanting to give back, students who want work experience at a busy social service agency, and anyone who wants to help people in crisis in our community.
