SERVE

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

God stewards are like the industrious and reliable servants in today's Gospel, prudently using and multiplying the gifts entrusted to them by God.

PENSAMIENTO ADMINISTRATIVO

Los mayordomos de Dios son como los sirvientes diligentes y confiables en el Evangelio de hoy, utilizando prudentemente y multiplicando los regalos confiados a ellos por Dios.

OFRENDAS DE LA SEMANA

En el pasado la parroquia iba a publicar las ofertas semanales y compararlas con un monto presupuestado, basado en "Ofrendas parte justa."

La publicación de esta información fue suspendido por recomendación de la diócesis debido a una serie de robos que se han producido en algunos las parroquias de la Diócesis.

Sus ofrendas semanales son muy importantes a la parroquia con el fin de cumplir con nuestras responsabilidades operativas. Pedimos que cada feligrés continuar en oración consideren una oferta consistente que ayude en el cumplimiento de esas responsabilidades. Su generosidad es su retorno al Señor todo el bien para ti.

WEEKLY OFFERING

In the past the parish would publish the weekly offerings and compare them to a budgeted amount, based on "Fair Share Offerings."

The publishing of this information was discontinued at the recommendation of the Diocese due to a number of burglaries that have occurred at some parishes in the Diocese.

Your weekly offerings are very important to the parish in order to meet our operational responsibilities. We ask that each parishioner continue to prayerfully consider a consistent offering that will assist in meeting those responsibilities

Your generosity is your return to the Lord for his goodness to you. Make an investment in the reign of God today!

Nurses Notes:

November is Alzheimer's Disease Awareness month

Alzheimer's Middle Stage caregiving

Eating, dressing and grooming will become more challenging as dementia progresses. This loss of independence and privacy can be a difficult transition for the person with dementia. Patience and sensitivity will go a long way to help in helping him or her through it. Once assistance is needed to complete daily tasks, think about the person's abilities. Encourage the person to do as much as possible, being ready to help when needed. For example, when dressing, you can give direction indirectly by laying out clothing in the order in which the item is put on.

In addition to enhancing quality of life, activities can reduce behaviors like wandering and agitation. You don't need to invent new things to do. Think of activities as things we do as part of our daily living. Activities can be making dinner together, gardening, listening to music or going for a walk.

Driving- During the middle stages of the disease, a person with Alzheimer's will need to stop driving. When it is clear that driving is no longer safe, try to involve the person with dementia in the decision to stop. Explain your concerns by giving specific examples. Assure the person you will do everything possible to make rides available.

Early in the middle stages, it will become too difficult or dangerous for a person with Alzheimer's to be left alone. Safety precautions will need to be taken throughout the living environment. At this point, if the person is living alone, he or she may need to move in with relatives or to a residential care setting.

This is the time when the caregiver needs to hook up with a social worker that has knowledge of care facilities and the process which is needed to move the person to an appropriate facility.

Next Week: Late-Stage Caregiving

Faith Community Nursing
Serving the community is our passion.

IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY

PLEASE use the phone at the AV booth or in the office to call 911. Do not use your cell phone it will reach Sacramento CHP and precious time will be lost.
