SERVE

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom.

PENSAMIENTO ADMINISTRATIVO

Cuando el Hijo del Hombre venga en gloria, que seamos entre aquellos que han alimentado a los hambrientos, dado la bienvenida al extranjero y vestido al desnudo. Jesús nos dice claramente que son aquellos que han demostrado buena mayordomía al compartir sus dones con los menos afortunados que recibirán la bendición de Dios y heredarán el Reino.

OFRENDAS DE LA SEMANA

En el pasado la parroquia iba a publicar las ofertas semanales y compararlas con un monto presupuestado, basado en "Ofrendas parte justa."

La publicación de esta información fue suspendido por recomendación de la diócesis debido a una serie de robos que se han producido en algunos las parroquias de la Diócesis.

Sus ofrendas semanales son muy importantes a la parroquia con el fin de cumplir con nuestras responsabilidades operativas. Pedimos que cada feligrés continuar en oración consideren una oferta consistente que ayude en el cumplimiento de esas responsabilidades. Su generosidad es su retorno al Señor todo el bien para ti.

WEEKLY OFFERING

In the past the parish would publish the weekly offerings and compare them to a budgeted amount, based on "Fair Share Offerings."

The publishing of this information was discontinued at the recommendation of the Diocese due to a number of burglaries that have occurred at some parishes in the Diocese.

Your weekly offerings are very important to the parish in order to meet our operational responsibilities. We ask that each parishioner continue to prayerfully consider a consistent offering that will assist in meeting those responsibilities

Your generosity is your return to the Lord for his goodness to you. Make an investment in the reign of God today!

Nurses Notes:

November is Alzheimer's Disease Awareness month

Late Stage Alzheimer's Caregiving

What to Expect:

- Has difficulty eating and swallowing
- Needs assistance walking and eventually is unable to walk
- Needs full-time help with personal care
- Is vulnerable to infections, especially pneumonia
- Loses the ability to communicate with words

Caregiving needs:

During late stage Alzheimer's the caregiver focuses on preserving quality of life and dignity. Although a person in late stage of Alzheimer's typically loses the ability to talk and express needs, research tells us that some of the person's core self esteem remains. At this point in the disease the world is primarily experienced through the senses. The caregiver can express caring through touch, sound, sight, taste and smell.

For example:

- Playing his or her favorite music
- Reading portions of books that have meaning for the person.
- Looking at old photos together
- Preparing a favorite food
- Rubbing lotion with a favorite scent into the skin
- Brushing the person's hair
- Sitting outside together on a nice day

Late stage Care Options:

Since care needs are extensive during the late stages, they may exceed what you can provide at home, even with additional assistance. This may mean moving the person into a facility in order to get the care that is needed. Deciding on late stage care can be one of the most difficult decisions families can face.

At the end of life, another option is hospice. Hospice focuses on quality and dignity by providing comfort, care and support services for people with terminal illnesses and their families. It is best to have this discussion with the person's Primary Care Physician who can give the diagnosis of Alzheimer's and certify that the person has less than six months to live. These are required in order to have Medicare cover the person.
