RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Our RCIA program this year is blessed with one adult candidate (a candidate is someone who has been baptized in another Christian denomination) who is being dismissed to reflect on the Word of God during our 10:30 Mass. RCIA dismissals have taken place during our 8:30 Mass for many years so this is a new experience for our 10:30 Mass as well as our candidate. Our Candidate this year is a wonderful gentleman who would like to introduce himself to the parish:

My name is Tom Cordry and I'm the "Candidate" for initiation into the Catholic Church at St. Anne thru the RCIA program.

My wife, Nicole, and I moved here from San Juan Capistrano in 2014 to be closer to our grandchildren. We've been attending Mass at St. Anne since 2014. We've been married for 47 years and though Nicole is Catholic, I wasn't but attended Mass for all those years because she liked my company at Church.

Nicole died of renal cancer November 18, 2016. After nearly 18 months of grieving, I made my first steps back to life here at St. Anne. I felt comfortable here and look forward to meeting you all.

If you see Tom after Mass or at a parish event stop and welcome him. I know you will agree with me that he is a wonderful gentleman who will be an asset to St. Anne and the rest of the Church.
