Our Catholic Life—the Mystery of God

We invite all adults to come and join us as we explore the foundations of our Catholic faith. We will use Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church as we will pray, study, share, and reflect on our vocations as Christians. Our program will be facilitated by Fr. Ron. The material was developed by Bill Huebsch. He is a leader in adult faith formation and our material is presented in accessible language for all. We will begin by considering the human heart. It is in our hearts that we find the longing that leads to faith. And we find that being with God is the only way to happiness. We will meet twice monthly between January and March.

Nurses Notes

Managing stress during the holidays (and at other times of the year as well)

When the world around us, seems to be working against us, the most productive thing we can do is improve ourselves through making small changes so that we grow and develop in positive directions. Look through the list below and try one or two of the suggestions

- Slow down, set priorities
- Do one thing at a time,
- Make time for exercise, get stronger, have more energy
- Get enough sleep, resist doing one more project
- Learn to say NO, set clear limits for yourself
- Take breaks from work, we can be less efficient if don't take stock in what we've accomplished
- Eat more healthy. drink water and avoid too much comfort foods or sweets or alcohol
- Enjoy music. sing, dance or listen
- Make time for something you enjoy. Write, draw, paint or participate in your favorite hobby
- Take a moment to deep breath, close your eyes for just one or two minutes.
- Make time for social contact

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

In today's Gospel it is with great joy that Mary and Joseph manifested their gift of faith in Jesus by presenting Him in the Temple, to be thanked and praised by those longing for salvation. Parents who practice good stewardship use their time and talents to pass on their faith, to educate, to nurture, and to protect their children.

PENSAMIENTO ADMINISTRATIVO

En el Evangelio de hoy es con gran alegría que Maria y Jose manifiestan su don de la fe en Jesús al presentarlo a El en el templo, para agradecerle y elogiarle por los que anhelan la salvación. Los padres que practican la buena mayordomía utilizan su tiempo y talento para transmitir su fe y para educar nutrir y proteger a sus hijos.
